Permanent Microwave Hookup For Alberta TV On Nov. 24

Television stations at Calgary, Lethbridge, Medicine Hat and Edmonton, will be connected to the direct microwave network on Nov. 24. The connection to Medicine Hat will be of a temporary nature for a period of one month.

The advantages of live television have already been seen by Albertans who viewed the Queen's visit, the World Series, and Eastern professional football on an experimental hookup.

Due to time differences across the country it is still necessary to delay most television programs in Alberta but world events, important actualities and sports contests will now be seen live. Each week you'll see the Friday night boxing matches and N.H.L. hockey games; and of course the Grey Cup football final on Nov. 30.

A special live microwave program is being planned to commemorate the opening of the permanent network connection.

The microwave network consists of a series of relay towers situated on an average of 30 miles apart. No three towers are placed in a straight line in the network; instead the towers are situated at angles to each other, giving a slightly zig-zag effect. This is done to eliminate the possibility of interference that might be caused by weak signals from the first tower reaching the third tower in the line.

The relay system used has an ultimate capacity of 12 one-way channels. A pair of channels can carry 600 telephone conversations, whereas a television program requires the major portion of a channel.

The system will also provide

SERVICE BOARD NOTES

H. S. Burns, Field Supervisor

W. D. Hay of the Experimental Farm at Lethbridge has prepared a pamphlet under date of Aug. 28, 1957, describing the Safflower plant, a rather newcomer to crops in southern Alberta. Quite an interest is developing in this plant, partly due to the fact that a new processing plant is being established in Lethbridge in the near future, which will be capable of extracting oil from this seed, and thus will give the farmers a new crop to grow and a home market for the product.

Mr. Hay states that the crop has been tested on both dry and irrigated land at the station for nearly twenty years but has not been grown commercially in southern Alberta until 1957. Some of the crops in the south were estimated to produce about 1000 pounds to the acre in this season.

Safflower requires a fairly long season, it grows slowly at first but makes rapid growth later on. It is very resistant to shattering and lodging, so straight combining should be the best method of harvesting.

We have Mr. Hay's pamphlet in our office and anyone interested can have one at any time. The growing and expanding of this crop will be watched with interest.

special communications facilities such as teletype, telephoto, telegraph and telemetering circuits.

Because of the distances separating the towers, an extensive maintenance problem is involved to ensure good reception. Attendants are on duty only at a few key stations and the others are looked after by remote control by means of an intricate alarm system.

E.U.B. Young People Organize

Recently the young people of the Grace E.U.B. Church gathered in the church parlors for a pot luck supper. After supper Rev. Wildeman talked to the group on the importance of having an organization through which they can be of help to the church, the community and to one another.

The Sunday School Superintendent, Charles Budd, then conducted the election of officers. Sandra Schierman was elected as president; Karen Seely, vice-president; and Calvin Lebsack, secretary-treasurer. The group was then divided into three groups with Mrs. A. Schierman, Mrs. Chas. Budd and Mrs. D. Schierman as adult leaders.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. A. Schierman conducted games and relays which proved highly entertaining. The young people will be responsible for the preliminaries of the Sunday evening church services. We invite the adults to give their support to these efforts by attending these services.

WILD OAT CONTROL

The success of any cultural method for control of wild oats will depend to a large extent on climatic conditions, but delayed seeding, post seeding cultivation, green feed crops, fall seeded crops and forage crops for a period of years all aid in battling the wild oat problem.

There is still another way of effectively controlling wild oats, says W. Lobay, Alberta's supervisor of Soils and Weed Control, especially in heavily infested fields. It is by shallow tilling stubble of late fall to cover scattered wild oat seeds. Practically any tillage implement can be providing the primary aim is fulfilled — to supply a seedbed for wild oats which will promote rapid germination in spring.

Two important factors must be kept in mind about this fall cultivation method. Cultivation should be to a sufficient depth to induce growth and yet not too deep to bury the seed and prevent its germination, and the seed on the soil surface should be given a chance to dry before it is turned under. Regardless of the weather one or more of the suggested cultural practices can be applied and will effectively reduce the wild oat problem.

Including sleigh dogs and police dogs, there are now more dogs on the strength of the R.C.M.P. than there are horses.

Thigh Hill W.I. Names Officers

The regular meeting of Thigh Hill W.I. was held Thursday, Nov. 7, at the home of Mrs. Bruce White. Eleven members and four visitors answered the roll call with "An Apple Recipe," which proved highly interesting.

During the reading of correspondence an appeal was received from the Vulcan and District Public Library and a donation of $10 was voted to this cause.

For the project of the month each member brought a diaper and a bar of soap, in a plastic container, to be sent to the Unitarian Service of Canada for shipment to refugee children.

The annual meeting took place at this time, with the following results: Mrs. Tom Houlton, re-elected president; Mrs. Clayton Clarkson, vice-president; Mrs. Bruce White, re-elected secretary-treasurer. Directors: Mr. L. Orchard, Mrs. M. Gottenberg and Mrs. E. Myers. Program committee: Mrs. F. Gottenberg and Mrs. Roy Deal. Sick and visiting: Mrs. E. Erickson and Mrs. N. Soder. Rest room representative, Mrs. O. B. Roe and library representative, Mrs. E. Schmidt.

Mrs. E. Myers presented a most interesting demonstration on making fancy wax candles and five pairs of these lovely candles were raffled, making the sum of $5 for the branch. On behalf of the ladies, Mrs. Houlton presented Mrs. Myers with a small gift, in appreciation of her excellent demonstration.

The tea draw was won by Mrs. Pat Roe, after which a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Houlton.

Calf Club Plans Season's Program

The first regular meeting of the Vulcan West-Ensign 4-H Club was held Saturday, Nov. 2, in the Ensign hall.

President Earl Mote called the meeting to order with nine senior and three pee-wee members present. A program of activities for the coming year was drawn up. It was also decided to have all the calves weighed at Ensign on Saturday, Nov. 3, and prizes given for best gain in weight between Nov. 3 and June 10, achievement day.

The next regular meeting was set for Saturday, Dec. 7, at the Legion Hall, Vulcan.

Members had a good look at their opposition calves at Ensign Saturday, with 15 calves being weighed in.

Requiem High Mass was held at the Church of the Immaculate Conception in Champion on Oct. 25, for Felix John Strauss, age 60, who died suddenly at his home in the Alston district on Oct. 22. Rev. M. L. Connolly officiated.

Born in Formosa, Ont., Mr. Strauss came to the Champion and Alston districts in 1916 and has resided on his farm west of Alston since 1920. He was married in Waterloo, Ont., in 1925 to Loretta Kiesvetter of Waterloo, and returned to live on the present farm.

Surviving are his wife; four sons, Ralph of Kitchener, Ont., James, Jerome and Richard at home; two daughters, Eileen of Toronto, Ont., and Mary at home; three brothers, Edward of Walkerton, Ont., George and Raymond of Greenock, Ont.; six sisters, Mr. A. (Cecilia) Kiesvetter of Black Horse, Ont., Mrs. H. (Mary) Kiesvetter and Mrs. E. (Abby) Dietrich of Waterloo, Ont., Mrs. H. (Amanda) Ernest of Chepstow, Ont., Mrs. S. (Gertrude) Edmondson of Winnipeg, Man., Miss Melinda Strauss of Owen Sound, Ont.; also three grandchildren of Kitchener, Ont.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Strauss of Formosa, Ont., and three sisters pre-deceased him.

Interment was made in the family plot in the Champion cemetery. Pall-bearers were Frank Baubier, Ray Flitton, Mike Biengessner, Sam Biengessner, Philip Fath and W. A. Keenan.

THE WEATHER

A heavy snowfall last weekend has pretty well killed any hopes of completing harvest this year. Temperatures this week have been in the 35 to 40 above range during the day, dropping to 5 or 10 at night. Roads are icy.

Consider Improvement Of Business District Lighting

A representative of Calgary Power Limited attended the regular meeting of the council of the Town of Vulcan this month to discuss with the council the improvement of street lighting in the business section of the town.

It is thought that the installation of mercury vapour lights would considerably brighten up the business district and this matter will be given full consideration by the council.

Leslie Bear was hired as skating rink caretaker for the winter season and other council business was of a routine nature.

W.S.W.S. Plan Thankoffering

The regular meeting of the W.S.W.S. was held at the home of Mrs. Walter Becker. Due to the inclement weather the attendance was quite small. In the absence of Mrs. H. Hiltz, who was to have been in charge of the meeting, Mrs. Chas. Budd took the devotions as well as the business meeting. In the absence of Mrs. E. Deimert, Mrs. D. Schierman conducted the study on Christian Faith Encounters Communism. A prayer period was then observed.

During the business meeting it was stated that two parcels of bandages and used clothing had been sent to Africa and four to the Philippines. An invitation from the Missionary Society of the Baptist Church at Arrowwood to attend their regular meeting on Nov. 28, was accepted, and plans were made for transportation to Arrowwood. Plans were also made for the annual Thank Offering Program to be held in Grace Church with Mr. and Mrs. M. Hodges, missionaries on furlough from Ethiopia, as special speakers.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Geo. Hartung. Mrs. W. Becker served a very delicious lunch.

Mobil Wildcat Is Abandoned

Calgary, Nov. 18—The Mobil Oil of Canada, Ltd., wildcat test venture eight miles south of Vulcan has been abandoned after final drill stem tests were unsuccessful. The well, Mobil Oil — C.P.R. — Parkland No. 16-23-15-25, was drilled to test the Devonian structure.

Farm Forum Discusses Capital

The Gay-West Farm Forum met at Bob Hubka's to discuss the topic "Farm Credit."

To the question "What is the minimum amount of capital needed to farm in your area?" the following was agreed upon: Land $30,000; machinery, $8,000; stock, $2,000, and operating cash, $3,000, for a total of $43,000. To the question, "What percent of this capital should you be able to obtain in the form of credit?" the forum thought that 75% to 80% should be available. To the question, "Do you think that the use of local dealer credit in your community is a satisfactory way of doing business?" "Is it economical?" The forum agreed that although it has always been appreciated, it is not satisfactory or economical.

To the question, "What do you think of government credit which would be granted subject to supervision of the farming operation by the lending agency?" The forum decided that supervision would be welcomed providing that the supervision was capable and the borrower willing.

A social hour and lunch completed the meeting at Bob's. Next Monday the topic, "A New Look in Farm Machinery" will be discussed at Bob Clark's. All interested persons in the Carmangay area are welcome.

Beagle-Winch Nuptials At Milo Church

Milo United Church was the setting for a lovely afternoon wedding on Oct. 25, when Frances Winch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Winch of Majorville, exchanged rings and vows with Melvin Beagle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Beagle of Arrowwood. Carnations and chrysanthemums decorated the altar of the church. Rev. Clarke of Namoo performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gownned in white. The lace bodice was of the shoulder style with a net yoke and short sleeves, the bouffant skirt was three tiered in net and was poised over satin and crinoline. The tiers were edged in lace. She wore long, lace gloves. Her veil fell from a headdress of net high-lighted with sequins. She wore a single strand of pearls, gift of the groom. Her bouquet was red roses entwined with white satin ribbon.

Mrs. Bruce Henry was her sister's matron of honor and wore a dress of coral colored nylon featuring a shirred sleeveless bodice and topped with a matching stole. She carried a bouquet of shaded pink and brown carnations and yellow rosebuds. Another sister, Margaret Winch, was bridesmaid and wore a dress of yellow taffeta. The sleeveless bodice was topped by a matching bolero and the top tier of the two tiered crinoline skirt was caught up at intervals with yellow rose buds. She carried a bouquet similar to the matron of honor and both wore headresses to match their dresses.

Best man was Douglas Phillips of Arrowwood and ushers were Marvin Winch, the bride's brother and Gordon King of Arrowwood.

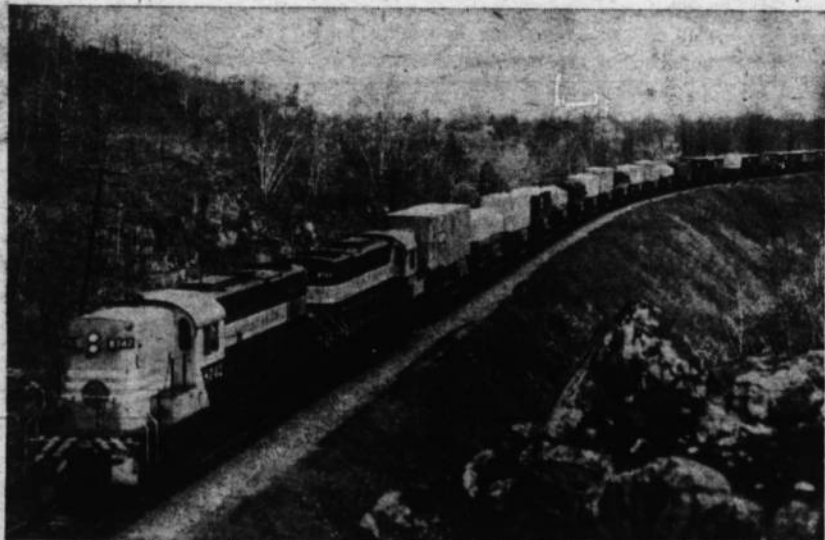

Mrs. N. Budd of Berrywater played the wedding music and accompanied Warden Budd who sang, "Because" before the ceremony and "I Love You Truly" during the signing of the register.

A reception in the I.O.O.F. Hall followed the church rites, when over one hundred guests signed the guest book. Rev. Clarke said grace. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake. John Bartsch proposed the toast to the bride which was responded to by the groom. Warden Budd rendered several solos during the reception and was accompanied by Mrs. Budd, who also played several piano solos.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon dress of blue and black with pink and black accessories. Her corsage was pink rosebuds. The groom's mother wore a teal blue afternoon dress with pink and black accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

For the honeymoon trip to U.S.A. the bride changed to a two-piece wool suit dress in light blue color, topped by a grey tweed shorty coat and wore silver and white accessories.

The young couple have now taken up residence in Arrowwood.

ON THE PIGGYBACK TRAIL—Canadian transportation's recent marriage of rail and highway finds the Canadian Pacific Railway operating solid piggyback trains in both directions between Montreal and Toronto, carrying the trailers of a number of well-known trucking firms to and from their destinations in Canada's two largest cities. Fast over-night service permits pick-up of trailers after close of business every evening and guarantees their delivery in the other city before the start of next day's business. Popularity of the service is attested by this view of a Canadian Pacific "piggybacker" at Christie Lake, Ont. Specially-designed roller-bearing flatcars carry the trailers. Piggyback trains are diesel-hauled.

LOAN PLANS FOR YOUNG FARMERS

Alberta's minister of agriculture, Hon. L. C. Halmrast, said that the government's plan of making capital loans available to young farmers is progressing favorably and the first loans will be made soon. So far, 11 of the 47 municipalities and counties in Alberta have set up the farm purchase boards required under legislation for processing the loan applications.

Under the plan, loans may be made up to $7,500 or 40 percent of the farm purchase price. They will be for a maximum of 20 years and will bear 5½ percent interest, of which the purchase board will keep one percent to meet operating costs and the remainder will go to the farm seller. Eligible for the loans are Canadian citizens and British subjects between 21 and 55 who have lived and farmed in Alberta, at least three years.

Saskatchewan has 96,000 square miles of occupied farm land, more than Alberta and Manitoba combined, and three times the Ontario total.

New hope for prevention of Heart Disease

In spite of accurate diagnosis, advanced medical science and surgery, heart disease is still the greatest killer today. What causes it? Can it be prevented? The National Heart Foundation of Canada, recently formed, will intensify the search for the answers to these questions. The Life Insurance Companies in Canada are supporting this Foundation because it is so important to the future health of Canadians. They have made substantial grants to cover the cost of launching the organization.

The Foundation will encourage intensive research into the causes of heart disease by every possible means. It will seek to stimulate professional and lay education and help family doctors to keep abreast of the newest developments in diagnosis and treatment.

Support of the National Heart Foundation is just one of many ways in which the life insurance companies in Canada are helping to create a healthier, happier life for Canadians.

MOSSLEIGH

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday were school days for the parents. The parents were all supposed to meet the teachers and receive the children's report cards; also to discuss any difficulties that may have arisen during the last two and half months.

The Mossleigh district received the worst snow fall of the season on Thursday and Friday. About 12 inches of snow lay on the level with very high drifts in the more sheltered places. The school was closed at noon on Thursday and there was no school on Friday, due to heavy or plugged roads. The 4-H Grain Club had to postpone their banquet to Nov. 29. Power service was disrupted north of town.

The monthly meeting of the Community Club was postponed last Saturday night, Nov. 9, because of the farewell party in Herrington for Mr. and Mrs. Joe Leslie, Sr., and no new date has been set yet.

Thurber was chairman and Mrs. H. Washburn secretary. It was decided that the executive continue the plans for the bingo and set a date. The pupils in Grades I to VI will receive candy bags at the Christmas parties and Grades VII and VIII may choose either candy bags or a game.

Mr. Thurber presented Helen Tharlie and Gail Malsey with the Home and School Scholarship Scrolls and cheques. Camille Stewart was unable to be present, so her scroll will be mailed to her. These scholarships were for Grade X and XI last term.

Grade V and VI won the room prize for having the largest parent attendance present.

Dr. V. Kennedy, dentist, was guest speaker, his topic was, "Prevention of Dental Decay," this was followed by a question period on the same subject. After the meeting, lunch was served by Mrs. J. Tangen, Mrs. R. Hill, Mrs. H. Tharlie, Mrs. H. Washburn and Mrs. E. Dueck.

Water isn't good for fighting an oil or grease fire. It spreads the fire. Smother such fires with a rug or clothing. Even baking soda will help do the trick if the frying pan flares up. Don't rush to the door with the blazing pan. The fumes may blow back, setting you afire.

CHILD ADOPTION IN ALBERTA

The CHILD WELFARE ACT provides for, and controls, the CHILD WELFARE BRANCH of the Department of Public Welfare. This branch of the Alberta Government is responsible for any adoption of any child in this Province.

In order to ensure that unsuitable persons do not become involved in dealing with child adoption the following section of the Act was introduced:

Except on the order of a District Court judge, no parent shall surrender the custody of his child and no person shall accept the custody of that child without having first obtained the approval, in writing, of the child welfare commission; and a surrender without such approval is null and void.

HOMES FOR CARE OF DEPENDENT CHILDREN

All homes for dependent children are authorized and maintained by the Child Welfare Branch under the Act. To these homes come children whose parents are incapable of caring for them properly and those children who have been abandoned or mistreated.

APPLICATIONS FOR ADOPTION

Adoption applications made by prospective parents are assigned to the HOME INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. This committee, after a thorough examination of the applicants and their home, pass the application on, if acceptable, to the PLACEMENT DIVISION. The prospective parents then discuss with this Branch the individual children available for adoption and a decision is reached for the placement of a particular child in their home.

IT TAKES TIME

Due to the splendid response to adoption in Alberta, approved applications now accumulate more quickly than children become available for adoption. This, coupled with the care that must be taken before placing a child, creates a waiting period that at first may seem unreasonable to the adopting parents. However, the decision to adopt a child is never made in haste nor is the adoption speeded up naturally to any risky conclusion.

PROBATIONARY PERIOD

Because of the great care taken in pre-adoption planning, reconsideration of a child placement is extremely rare. A one year period is however, provided by the Act to insure that there is complete adjustment of the parents and the child in their new life together.

DISTRICT COURT MAKES ADOPTION FINAL

The new parents make petition to the District Court for legal adoption papers. This petition along with a full recommendation by the Child Welfare Commission is considered by the District Court Judge before a legal adoption order is issued. The child, to all intents and purposes, is legally a child of the new parents. A new birth certificate is issued and all records pertaining to the adoption are placed in a sealed pocket.

FOSTER HOMES

Private homes, voluntarily contributed, for the care of children are always in demand. If the child is not adopted, a good foster home will provide the love and understanding so necessary to his development.

they'd be cheaper by the gallon

It costs plenty to raise a family these days. But if youngsters, like your car, ran on gasoline you'd be better off.

Want to know why? Today everything costs more, including the scores of things a growing family needs. Gasoline costs more, too.

But government figures show that since 1939 the cost of living has gone up more than 120 percent while wholesale gasoline prices have risen about 40 percent—less than a third as much.

And what's more—today's regular gasolines are far superior to the premium grades sold only ten years ago.

TRAVELLING AT NIGHTS

Night comes earlier and more dangerously, at this time of the year, warns Arch Bryce, general manager of the Canadian Highway Safety Conference.

In a special safety reminder to motorists, Mr. Bryce cautioned that reduced visibility makes it advisable to stay off the highway after dark.

Those who are obliged to drive at night, the safety official said, will profit by slowing down and following these tested highway survival practices:

1. Before setting out on your after dark trip, make sure you have plenty of gas. Check tires for proper inflation and make sure you know how to use your jack. Your lights should be in good working order and if you have engine or tire trouble, a flashlight will come in handy.
2. Parking lights should be turned on before it gets dark. Careful drivers light them at sunset.
3. Stop every hour or so at a roadside restaurant for a breath of fresh air and a stimulating cup of hot coffee.
4. Stop driving and pull off to the side of the road the moment you run into heavy fog or heavy rain or when you find yourself overtired. Fog will lift, rain will cease, fatigue will vanish with a little rest, and you may continue your trip safely.
5. Dim your lights just as soon as a car comes within "glaring" distance. It satisfies the ego only temporarily to glare back at the approaching driver; both of you can wind up glaring your last from a wreck in the ditch.
6. If you have to drive through scantily populated areas, take along a vacuum filled with coffee or some other alertness beverage.
7. Drinking anything alcoholic when driving is always perilous but never more so than at night when drivers' reflexes are overtaxed.
8. There is one good side of his nature a driver should resist: do not pick up unknown hitchhikers. Some have proved themselves to be robbers and murderers.

This nightmare code of conduct is adhered to by thoughtful drivers the year round, concluded Mr. Bryce, who stressed its special significance with the present early nightfall.

When I survey the wondrous Cross
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

See from His head, His hands, His feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down;
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

"Christ also suffered for us ...
Who His own self bare our sins in His own body on the tree."
